other additional expenses incurred, so monthly payments increased. Looking for approval if everyone's happy to keep investigating.

Happy for $10k spent for pathway. Baseboards we will wait. Master key approved for $800.

Loan is for 8 years.

No more paperwork required to fill out, just require approval.

Received 50K cash boosts during COVID, as well as job keeper. OSHC currently ahead of last year.

Term deposit nearing maturity on 13th august. Happy to renew for another twelve months.

Christine Lyne moved that her report be adopted as read. Janet Smith seconded her report.

CARRIED

Principal's Report – Refer to Attached Report.

Key Points:

Report cards to be shipped out Wednesday week. English, maths, science, HPE only.

Sports / activity events limited to 100 kids at a time, and about 150 kids per year level.

Early pickup and changed pickup conditions expected to continue for the next four weeks.

Extra cleaning continues.

866 kids currently enrolled. Not currently accept kids from out of catchment areas. Will have an impact on next year's prep. Expecting only four classes of kids in prep next year as a result.

Developing happening in Cusack lane, and near Emmaus school — multiple developments happening within Jimboomba within school catchment area.

Tutoring available upon request.

Tim Farrell moved his report be adopted as read. Chris Lyne seconded the report.

CARRIED

Sub Committees –

Tuckshop

Over the counter orders and cash orders now permitted.

Janet Smith moved that the report be adopted as read. Jess Gunther seconded the report.

President: Kieth Hinson
Secretary: Jaimee Galloway

Vice President: Catherine Noonan
Treasurer: Christine Lyne

Summer swimming is based on council restrictions – need to consider parameters before advertising as available in December and January.

Considering merchandise overhaul.

Other suggestions. Towels, board shorts, selling rashies in uniform shop. Bumper sticker. Everyone in favour of looking for rash shirts to sell at the uniform shop.

Happy with plan to cross train p and c staff.

Jess moves a motion to cross train p and c staff in swim qualification. Tammy seconds.

CARRIED

Jess moves for OSHC to work with pool to bring kids down.

Yes, to Monday's. Swimming usually finishes 1:30, check with miss Vudrag.

Mums and bubs 12s, daytime fitness, lane hire before school pickup etc.

Peak times just after drop off, just before pickup.

Targeted programs in the middle of the day.

Need to consider temporary ladders/affixes to make it easier to get in and out. Temporary/removal ramp for access.

Consideration on more sophisticated system to streamline operational processes. Need to shop around for costs. Need to look for costs. Tim to call a few schools in Brisbane to find out what systems they're utilising.

Jess Gunther moves report as read. Catherine Noonan seconded.

CARRIED

Markets – Refer to Attached Report

Going to put posts with sanitiser instead of volunteers.

Are reopening bbq shed. Bacon and eggs burger, sausage sizzle, drinks. Packets of chips might be hard to come by from supplier due to time. Not doing burgers. Not having year level system for rest of year. Bacon and egg burgers and sausages on bread.

Seats continued to not be offered. Open spaces around food alley.

Before and After School Care – Refer to Attached Report

Going well, job keeper finished, numbers remain high.

Last vacation care quieter than normal, good as incursions had to be cancelled due to “free” attendance.

Some payments already coming in, as payments charged a week in advance. Year 4 / 6 often has lower numbers. If they need continued support they need to go to Centrelink and apply for hardship for thirteen weeks.

Michelle is settling in. Amy, Lynnise and Sam as well. Team growing with different skills and knowledge bases.

Tiffany Collins moved her report be adopted as read. Catherine Noonan seconded the report.

CARRIED

Uniform Shop

Addition: increase of prices, Change in suppliers. Seeking approval, jackets running low and need to be reordered.

Jess moves as go with Tudor for fleecy with ten-dollar increase. Leisa seconded.

CARRIED

Jess Gunther moved that the report be adopted as read. Christine Lyne seconded the report.

CARRIED

Fundraising -TnT

Parents still not allowed to come on grounds, utilise school leaders to drop off cans – pickup from drop off points and take down to can collection point.

Moved Tammy Stewart seconded by Leisa Kerr.

CARRIED

General Business

Covid checklist – need to be compliant to serve food at market. Needs to be performed, checked and displayed in market area.

Year 6 students have been helping in tuckshop. Folding pizza boxes, sauce containers. Boxes down to the bins, birthday buckets. Kids to help out where they can, but not within the tuckshop due to food safety issues with cold season.

President: Kieth Hinson
Secretary: Jaimee Galloway

Vice President: Catherine Noonan
Treasurer: Christine Lyne

Sorting lost property with year 6 students – minimal stuff there now. Year 6s took it at the end of last term and sorted it out.

Next Meeting: Meeting closed at 7:40pm. Next meeting set for Tuesday 11th August.
