Activities since last report	It started off relatively quiet, following on from the Easter holidays. We put it down to the weather cooling down. Numbers have dropped off because of this and subsequently we decided the end of the swimming season would come about sooner than what we had hoped. We have some big plans for next season and hope that we will advertise and extend our season even longer next time around. We are on the look out for some fresh faced and motivated new learn to swim teachers to help make our next season bigger and better.
